ITEMS AT THE COURTS.

A Chinaman was sent to prison for two months with hard labour for throwing stones at the police in Taping Theatre.

One keeper was fined $25 or six weeks imprisonment, and nine gamblers $2 or six days each, by Mr F. A. Hazland, at the Magistracy this morning. Two keepers were fined $75 or six weeks by Mr J. R. Wood and seven others were fined $4 or seven days each.

In the case of Li Po Hung and Li Ki Tong, the Chief Justice Sir Francis Pigott, at the Supreme Court this morning, ordered that the appeal be dismissed with costs but as appellants had won on a subsidiary point they would receive one-third of the costs. Mr Justice Gompertz concurred.

THE TRONOH MINES.

The acting General Manager of the Tronoh Mines forwards to the Straits Times the results of operations during August as follows:—Output, tributors are 487 piculs mine ore 7,043 piculs, total output 7,530 piculs. Value: tributors ore $25,592 mine ore $411,458.82, total value $437,050.82. Estimated profit: Tributors ore $5,000, mine ore $294,694, total profit $299,694. Estimated amount due for development work $50,000.

CHIERED ON RELEASE.

Friends and employees, numbering fully a thousand, gathered at Glasgow Prison gates recently to welcome Mr James Weir, son of a wealthy Glasgow engineer, on his liberation after undergoing 40 days imprisonment for assaulting Dr. MacEwan, son of Sir William MacEwan. The case created a great sensation in Scottish society recently. Dr. MacEwan was engaged to Mr Weir's sister, and after the marriage had been broken off, Mr Weir attacked the doctor as he was about to enter a hospital. Dr. MacEwan being badly injured in the attack. Weir was surrounded by his friends and employees from Messrs Weir's works as he emerged from prison, despite the fact that his release had been made privately by the prison authorities, with a view to avoiding a demonstration. His sympathisers would not, however, be denied, and the demonstration was made the more remarkable by the presence of two brass bands. After Mr Weir had been escorted to a white horse, a procession was formed, and, headed by the bands, escorted him to his residence.

OVER NIAGARA FALLS.Englishman's Boating Trip in a Steel Barrel.Once again a man has gone over Niagara Falls and lives to tell the tale, and old Bobby Leach, 69 years of age, who at the end of July leaped over the Falls in a steel barrel, is the hero of the holiday thrumbling honeymoon couples now flocking to the famous resort. He told interviewers that he had achieved the greatest ambition
of his life, and although bruised from head to foot, with arms and legs sprained and forehead cut, he is the happiest man alive.Leach is an Englishman by birth, and several times, encased in a barrel, he has braved the rapids of Niagara, always reserving the Falls for the last great event of his adventurous career. Leach keeps a restaurant at Niagara Falls, and now, in the centre of his dining hall, surrounded by trophies and English, Canadian and American flags, stands the famous barrel, 7 ft.
long, made of tin, steel plates, in which the leap was made. Inside is the rope hammock, strongly lashed to the ends, in which Leach was tied from the moment the barrel entered the Niagara River, a mile above the Falls, until he was fished out, twenty-five minutes later from the whirlpool, within a stone's throw of the mighty avalanche. The strongest feature about Leach is his patriotic instinct, which seems to have been nurtured by perpetual contact with American and Canadian visitors to the Niagara Falls. He told interviewers that he had not been able to do much for England, but his great trip in the barrel, witnessed by thousands of spectators on either bank, would, he knew, be "put to England's credit."Leach certainly gambled with his life.
He floated down the upper rapids at a terrific rate, leaping, diving, hurrying, scurrying, sometimes bashed against the rocks, at other times disappearing beneath the frenzied waters, until he entered the relatively deep, even flow, which, like the calm before a storm, leads to the stupendous cataract. "I took a firmer grip of the sides of my hammock," said Leach, and just raised. The diameter of the barrel is only 3 ft., and water leaked through the airholes. "England expects every man to do his duty," said Leach over we went. The wooden ends of my barrel had been smashed by collision with the rocks, and I wondered how I should feel when the barrel touched bottom and the stupor of being of water were charging over me. "I seemed to pause an instant on the brink," he plunged down. That's about all I recollect, but I'd all right today. No, I shan't repeat the performance."Within 20 seconds the steel barrel, tossing about like a cork, reappeared at the bottom of the falls, and then, with a terrific impetus towards the Canadian shore, shot away down the river. A boat with friends was in waiting, and Frank Bunker, a fine swimmer, with a rope about his waist, dived in the foaming water and secured a hold on the barrel, which was promptly hauled ashore and opened. With the exception of a gash over the forehead, Leach was not badly injured. He was dressed first with brandy and then with outrigger. Leach and recovered consciousness says: "My name Niagara," was his first exclamation, says the Telegraph. He described the trip through the Upper Rapids as frightful. It seemed as though the barrel turned over a million times, and just when he struck a rock, and water poured in, he was prepared to die.DANGER OF BLOOD POISONING.
EVERY family should at all times be provided with a good reliable remedy
and those who have used Chamberlain's Cough Syrup will find that it is a swift and sure remedy for all the coughs and colds that result in blood poisoning and cause the loss of a limb.
Each bottle is of 100 capsules, which can be promptly applied. Coughs and colds are cured in a few days when Chamberlain's Cough Syrup is used.
It is a most reliable remedy for all coughs and colds, and is sold by all Chemists and Druggists.

WEDDED BY PHONE.

Marriage by telephone, with the officiating minister in one place, the bridegroom in another, and the bride in still another, is an innovation in weddings. The Rev. H.
B. Minton, sitting in his study at 101
North Broadway, New York, was called upon to perform the ceremony for a young man and Miss Mary De Witt, who at that particular moment, surrounded by relatives and friends, was sitting in the parlor of her home at Blanchard.Coin is a small town five miles north of Blanchard, and Southern, three miles west of Blanchard, is about the same distance south-west of the pastor's home.
At the Blanchard home the minister got
the De Witt and Preston homes on "the line," and when everything was ready the bride and bridegroom, each holding a phone to their respective ears, were married.When they answered "We do," the pastor said: "Join hands over the wire."
The rejoinder was, "We have."
The clergyman replied: "I pronounce you man and wife."One has to go far back in the annals of Shanghai to find a summer so stormy as this has been, says the N. C. Daily News.
Storm has followed storm, until for days on end the port has been wind-swept. Inquiry at the Shanghai Observatory for an explanation of such a state of affairs elicits
the information that this is a general phenomenon, for which at present, no account can be given. In fact, until about a year has elapsed, during which time reports will have been received from the various continents and countries, it will not be possible to give a scientific explanation of the abnormal nature of the season.COUGHING INTO

THE TRAGEDY OF BRAINFAG.

A Famous Novelist's Confession.

I feel that one's brain is tired, that one's grip and power of concentration are no longer what they were, is a tragedy which only those who have gone through it, or who dread the possibility of its happening before they have made any provision for their responsibilities can fully appreciate.

To be rescued from the clutches of so depressing a state of mind is, naturally, the earnest wish of everyone. This can be readily done by means of Sanatogen, the world-renowned stimulant and restorative, which is endorsed by over four thousand doctors, including physicians to ten crowned heads of Europe.

Sanatogen contains organic phosphorus in exactly the condition in which it is present in the brain and nervous system. It is thus easily assimilated and stored up by the brain to supply the overdraft which the body has made of this invaluable, vital substance.

What Sanatogen has done in these cases is vividly indicated by Madam Sarah Grant, the famous authoress, who writes: "Sanatogen has done everything for me which it is said to be able to do for cases of nervous debility and exhaustion. I began to take it after nearly four years of enforced idleness from extreme debility, and felt the benefit almost immediately. And now, after taking it steadily three times a day for twelve weeks I find myself able to enjoy both work and play again, and also able to do as much of both as ever I did. It is daily bread to my work."

Sanatogen may be obtained of all Chemists.

EXCEEDING THE SOUND LIMIT.

This case was interesting as being the first under the new Hooter Abatement Act. A police sergeant stated that the defendant was summoned for exceeding the sound limit outside a home for mental and nervous diseases at four in the morning. He took the sound himself with the official stethoscope at a distance of a hundred yards, and the noise on being produced at the police station broke one of the windows, and several officers rushed in thinking a diplomatic had broken loose.

Cross-examined as to the noise, the sergeant described it as something like the shriek from a four-point-seven shell, then it walked in a rising, hoarse, rumbled whistle, and finished with a bang like a submarine mine exploding. Yes, he understood the penalty for perjury. The defendant, when stopped, denied that he had used the hooter at all. He did not appear to be sober; and, stammered: "The hooter was not to the touch, as if it had been violently used for some time. It was worked by a powerful subsidiary engine."

Constable O. K. 51, corroborating the last witness, deposed that he was stationed two or three miles away drinking—he meant, patrolling a country road—when he heard a scream and thought a menagerie had broken out. He rushed out of the public-house, he left his post at once—and found the defendant standing beside his car outside the house, yawn, looking puffed and exhausted, as a man might who had just stopped blowing a hooter. (Murmurs.) He closed with witness and the sergeant and assaulted them brutally. The sound was a harsh, rasping one, something like that of the chairman of the Bench. The witness being abruptly ordered to stand down.

The defendant was sworn, and undertook to put a very different complexion on the case. The hooter was governed by a patent phonometer, which automatically prevented the sound increasing beyond two-mighthale power. It was like the cooing of a dove, and he defied anyone to drive it to a louder noise than that of a tenor clarinet. "It was something like this," "Tr-la-la" (Here the witness was requested to speak louder, as the Court could hear nothing).

Cross-examined: The official gramophone would take the chirping of a sparrow and represent it as a thunderstorm. (Sensation.) It was grossly inaccurate. With an instrument like that the sergeant could summon an angel because his wings rustled and have him fined five pounds! What he really had taken—the sergeant, not the angel—was the sound of the whistle of a steam laundry close by, which had been developed on the same plate. Witness had driven through cathedral towns blowing the hooter without making a single policeman. It was a "standard" hooter (Daily Mail pattern) and had won the 1,000-lb. reliability non-stop prize offered by that journal, known as the Humming-Bird Competition. What the police wanted was hooters which would play the Chocolate Soldier or Count of Luxembourg valle sotto voce, and yet be heard five miles away; nothing would please them less than a professional string band seated on the bonnet of the car. The sergeant and constable had been truculent, and offensive, and he suspected, were not sober. (Police murmurs.)

Dr. Richard Strauss, called as an expert witness, deposed that he had examined the hooter and that nothing about the sound could be called loud or discordant; he would have included it in any of his operas. (Laughter.) Many prima donnas were much more irritating. The range of the instrument was from great G to the four-lined E, and the key indeterminate.

Cross-examined: He was not deaf.

The managing director of the Tortoise Supply Syndicate, sworn, stated that he was the manufacturer of the hooter. It had a two-sound gearing—one technically known as the Kitten's Purrr (for close quarters), and the other called the Olympic Siren. The latter was of a more powerful type, with an effective range of about five miles, and a high velocity, capable of defeating instruments carried by the heaviest class of armoured motor and commonly used for night attacks. He supplied various classes of these hooters—the Bessie Owl, the Twitter, the Whizzer, the Buffalo Bellow, the Anarchist Bomp, the Tonic Cat, and the Suppressed Earthquake. He had specimens in court and could give a practical demonstration. (Examination hastily concluded.)

The chairman described the case as an ordinary one in the number of untruths uttered. "Noise" under the Act included screams, whistles, blast, cough, pant, and shrill. These hooters appeared to be as constructed as to accuse an entire district without making any impression on pedestrians five yards ahead. Were the poor to be put off or the life risk disturbed by their sleep? He had no political bias, but he answered immediately—the poor should be put off. Noise in motors was only permissible to distress, doctors, and others to whom advertisements were essential. The Court would now adjourn to 10.30, to see the defendant's action.

The case being given, ending with the hooter at the high-speed setting, the Court was prosecuted at the noise, and the chairman declared with indignation that anything more monstrous, anything more of an outrage and insult to civilization, he had never heard. The hooter was a blatant cry more hideous than the yell of a laughing jackass, only suitable to the motor car of a loud, prancing and: He had no hesitation in branding the owner as a vulgar, reckless, criminal, and—oh! what?

Here it was discovered that the chairman's own motor car had been exhibited accidentally, and the defendant was discharged. —HILL ROWAN.

MISHAP ON THE S.S. CHANGSHA.

Marine Court of Enquiry.

The Marine Court at Sydney held an inquiry on August 16th into the circumstances connected with a mishap to one of the boilers of the steamer Changsha, belonging to the China Steam Navigation Company.

The statement of Mr. Robinson was that on July 13, while the vessel was on a voyage from Hongkong to Melbourne, the combustion chamber crowns and upper portion of the sides of the port main boiler became overheated owing to the boiler getting too low in the boiler. The plates were forced inwards and drawn off the supporting stays. Steam rushed through the stay holes into the furnace and out through the furnace doors and ashpits into the stokehold, to the imminent danger of the firemen. One boiler was entirely disabled, and the vessel had to go to Sydney at a reduced speed.

The Court, consisting of Judge Backhouse, and Messrs Barry and Cromack, engineers, as assessors, was asked to decide: (1) Was it proper treatment to fill the boiler so full leaving Manila that the water level was out of sight above the gauge-glass? (2) Were the gauge glasses in good order and condition on July 12 and 13, and did the engineers take the proper steps to ascertain if they were? (3) Were the gauge glasses tested by what is known as the "double shut-off" at any time, especially was this done before the boiler was blown down on the morning of July 13? (4) Was the damage due to low water in boiler, and was this brought about by negligence in the use of gauge-glass cocks? (5) If so, and if any of the former four questions are answered in the negative, what blame attaches to any or all of the engineers of the steamship?

Mr. Robinson appeared for the Department of Navigation; Mr. Moseley for the chief and second engineers of the Changsha; Mr. Pickburn for the third engineer.

The Court heard evidence, and after an hour's retirement found that the mishap was caused by the wrongful act of chief engineer, James Edward Runcie, in putting too much water into the boiler in the first instance, and by his default when called in to try to ascertain more accurately before he left what was the cause of the trouble; and by the wrongful act of the third engineer, Walter Douglas Cullen, in allowing the blow-off cock to remain open too long.

The Court called upon each of the officers named to show cause why their certificates should not be cancelled or suspended.

Presiding at the annual meeting of the Borneo Chamber of Commerce, Mr W. G. Darby remarked that, considering the Chamber had only been established for one year they had been able to do a great deal towards consolidating their position and also getting their authority recognized. During the time he had been there, he had never known any body brought into being this could speak with the same influence and was of as representative a character as the chamber. If its affairs were properly conducted it would wield an influence, the effect of which would be to be felt, and which would not wholly depend upon the number of members although they would always place the most importance on getting as many members as possible to join.

The fact is that the whole question of Sunday observance is rather a complex one. Though it is apparent from the general tone of the discussion that a gradual change is coming over the people of England in their views on the subject, it is equally true that there are many who fear that the tendencies of the age are too violent and that Sunday

as a day of rest and serious contemplation is fast becoming a thing of the past. Generalising, however, the average view of sensible people appears to be that no harm is done
by participation in light amusements
on the Sabbath providing they do not involve interference with worship or necessitate compulsory labour on the part of other people. This is the line taken by Canon H. Bickersteth Ottery, Hon. Secretary of the Imperial Sunday Alliance, a body which unites under its banner the three great branches of the Christian faith—the Roman Catholic, the Anglican and the Nonconformist Churches. He holds that while there is nothing intrinsically wrong in music and such simple amusements on Sundays, there is great objection to all activities which tend to extend commercialism and compulsory labour into the seventh
day. "We are fighting for the unhappy workers who are forced to labour the week through without rest," he said, in a recent interview
on the question. "We are not kill-joys.
The real kill-joys are those capitalists who destroy the souls of their employees by forcing on them continuous labour. That is the danger if this secularisation extends. The workers have to be busy on the seventh day,
and they get no compensating day
off. You take away a man's dignity and independence if you take away his Sunday. He feels that he is not a man, but a machine. Our fight is the fight of all forms of Christianity against naked secularism and utter indifference to religion. . . . We make no suggestions as to the way in which individuals should conduct their Sunday worship. All we ask is that Sunday work shall be cut down to the absolute minimum. . . . I do not wish it to be imagined that we advocate the old gloomy Sunday After a person has attended to his Sunday worship—whatever form that may take—there is no reason why he should not amuse himself, so long as this does involve unnecessary labour on others. Tennis, and even simple card games, may not be the highest use of spending Sunday, but it is difficult to see that pastimes which are innocent on week-days become wicked on Sunday. Each man must decide the case according to his own circumstances and his own conscience.
But I think there is a better way of spending the day than on games."

This, we venture to think, is a sane view of the question. The old Puritan idea that all Sunday amusements are essentially wicked is, we are glad to say, fast dying out, for though all who have the welfare of Britain at heart would deprecate a complete secularisation of the Sabbath, it has to be admitted that as times change so do thought and feeling. Here in Hongkong the general view of Britishers on this question is much broader than at home, but he would be a bold man who would assert that in the bulk
the British population of the Colony has in consequence a lower standard of morals or of religion than have many of the more narrow-minded though intensely earnest folk in the Homeland. After all, as Canon Bickersteth Ottery says, the matter is one which must be decided by the dictates of every man's own conscience.

News from States confirms the rumour

A BANQUET THAT DIDN'T COME OFF.

Preparations for a great banquet had been made at the Chin Tin Lau restaurant, Boshan Straits, on Sunday night, but for some unknown reason it didn't come off.
In consequence, hundreds of persons who had purchased tickets were disappointed.
As it was, some hundred persons from East Point and beyond put in an appearance, but went away quietly when informed that there was to be no banquet, the others who contemplated attending having become acquainted with the fact during the course of the afternoon.

The banquet had been arranged in honour of three men, one of whom was the editor of the Wai Sun, in Gough Street, who had been selected by what is known amongst the Chinese as the Martyrs Society to go to Peking, in connection with the railway nationalisation question
and plead the cause of the people there.

A feature of the gathering was to have been the attendance of the banquetters in white, the national mourning of China, as it was confidently expected that the three selected ones would never return. After the feast they were to parade to the boat to bid them farewell. As it happened, no banquet took place, although it is understood that the three men will go all the same in a day or two.

MASTER MARINER AND SHIPOWNERS.

An Appeal Case.

At the Supreme Court this morning before the Chief Justice, Sir Francis Piggott, and Mr Justice Gompertz, sitting as an appeal Court, and Captain Arthur, of Messrs Godard and Douglas, as Assessor,
the appeal was heard in the action between Captain Tom Austin, respondent, and the Chi Woo Steamship Co., appellants.

Hon. Mr H. E. Pollock, K.C., and Mr
Elliot Potter, instructed by Mr D. J.
Lewis, appeared for appellants and the Hon. Mr C. G. Alabaster for respondent, instructed by Mr D. V. Stevenson.

The appeal was brought on the following
grounds, amongst others—
(1) That the finding of the learned Judge that there was no oral agreement between the appellants and the respondent to the effect that the engagement might be terminated by 24 hours' notice on either side was against the weight of evidence.

(2) That the learned Judge held, without any evidence being before him to that effect, that it was the usual course of duty
on river boats plying between Hongkong
and Canton and carrying only two officers, for no regular watch to be kept, but that the appellants can call evidence to show that on river boats plying between Hongkong and Canton and vice versa and carrying only two officers, regular watches are in fact kept.

(3) That inasmuch as Captain Pybus was called in to advise the Court upon the evidence before the Court as to the duty of the respondent to set regular watches, the independent statements of Captain Pybus amounting to evidence as to the practice on river steamers with regard to keeping regular watches ought not to have been accepted by the learned Judge as evidence or otherwise for the purpose of arriving at his judgment.

(4) That it appears from the learned
Judge's judgment with regard to Captain Pybus' statements to him, that Captain Pybus could speak only as to his belief and not as to his personal knowledge as to the usual course of duty on the West River boats.

(5) That as regards the usual course of duty on the Yangtze river boats, Captain Pybus could only speak of his own personal knowledge in regard to a period antecedent to the year 1891, since when he has been employed continuously on one of the ships of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, which are ocean-going ships.

(6) That in view of the practice of keeping regular watches which in fact prevails
on river steamers plying between Hongkong and Canton, even though carrying only two officers, it was not proper and seamanlike for respondent to run his ship for various periods during the voyage with only a Chinese pilot on duty on the bridge. But that on the contrary it constituted a neglect of duty in the respondent to have omitted to keep a system of regular watches between himself and the mate throughout the whole voyage between Hongkong and Canton and vice versa, and that such a neglect of duty
would have justified the appellants in dismissing him without notice.

(7) That any method of procedure in a river voyage such as is described by the respondent would constitute a neglect of duty,
a precaution which is required by the ordinary practice of seamen, and would have justified the appellants in dismissing him without notice, and that any custom,
even if proved, to neglect such a precaution
would be bad in law.

Mr Pollock said that they moved inter-alia for leave to call further evidence, and it was desirable that that point should be settled first. His reason for making the application was that they had certain witnesses at certain expense. If their Lordships were with them they could proceed to call such evidence and the other points could be argued subsequently.

Mr Justice Gompertz—On what point
do you desire further evidence?

Mr Pollock—On this point of custom.
My learned friend Mr Potter will argue that point.

Mr Justice Gompertz—The question of further evidence on that point was only raised after the appellants had closed their case. They called the gentleman from the Harbour Office, Mr Jones, as to the custom which prevailed on this ship and according to the evidence of the Captain, Mr Tom Austin, it was bad. Mr Stevenson tried to call evidence to rebut that and it seemed to him, the point coming up suddenly, that the practice of whether the captain did this or that was not relevant and therefore it did not seem worth while to call further evidence. The defendants had closed their case.

Mr Pollock—We have the evidence of Mr Evans to say that there was no difficulty in keeping watch and watch since Captain Austin left.

Mr Pollock—Might I suggest that the whole of Captain Austin's evidence was that it was his individual custom.

Mr Justice Gompertz—No. He says he followed the custom.

The Chief Justice—Now what you are trying to do is to appeal from the assessor's answer.

Mr Pollock—The question must have affected the assessor's opinion when he said
"I consider that to be the usual practice."
That affects the whole thing and naturally affects the answer of the assessor to the learned judge, and also must affect the view of the learned judge who has to come to an independent decision of his own upon the point.

Mr Justice Gompertz—Supposing you have a difference of opinion between two neutral men, don't you ask them which they prefer?

Mr Pollock—No.

Mr Justice Gompertz—In my judgment I found that defendant knew what plaintiff was doing. I was convinced that the owners did know all about the way the ship was run. The plaintiff gave evidence and stated that the defendant played cards with the captain.

Mr Pollock—These boats go up and down the river at twelve knots.

Mr Justice Gompertz—This Court and I myself have expressed an opinion about two officers before now.

Mr Pollock—But the Chief Justice's letter to the Government on the question pointed out that the ordinance only required one officer to be on watch.

Mr Justice Gompertz—It was put to the owner that he frequently played cards with the captain while the mate was collecting the tickets.

The Chief Justice—The question which arose on the Kwong Tung correspondence was that the captain should not keep watch.

Mr Justice Gompertz—It seems to me that what your people should have done
was to say that they did not like the way
the captain was running the ship and that, if he did not run it properly they would terminate his agreement.

The Chief Justice—We are not dealing with a maritime case. We are dealing with the question whether the owners were justified in dismissing the captain.

Mr Justice Gompertz—Assuming that which he did was wrong, there might be a case for prosecution by the Crown against the captain, but when the owners knew what was going on that was not sufficient grounds for dismissing him.

The Chief Justice—The only question
before this Court is whether defendants knew what was going on.

Mr Pollock—It must come to this: that they knew it and deliberately allowed it to go on.

The Chief Justice—The point should be argued that defendants did not know what was going on.

Mr Potter then dealt with the question of a master condoning the act of his servant.

Their Lordships decided that no further evidence was necessary and that being the case there was no need for the service of an assessor.

Hon. Mr Pollock argued with respect to the oral agreement and submitted that the weight of evidence was against the finding of the learned Judge.

After hearing further argument their Lordships dismissed the appeal with costs.

THE SHANGHAI TEAM FOR HONGKONG.
It has been decided that a team is to be sent to represent Shanghai at the Swimming Gala to be held at Hongkong on the 21st, 22nd and 23rd instants, says the N.Y.O.
Daily News. The following team has been provisionally selected and it is expected that all its members will be able to make the journey:—

Frank W. White (Capt.) R. W. McCabe,
D. E. Drummond, E. Thacher, T. W. E.
Wilson, R. W. Wells, E. Berthel, C.
Doyle, and E. J. Brown.

Drummond, of course, is known as the holder of the 100 and 200 yards championship of Shanghai, and McCabe has previously held the title. Berthel carried off the one length handicap at the gala last Saturday and the other members of the team distinguished themselves in the race between the Rowing Club and the International Swimming Club.

The team, which will be in good hands with Mr F. W. White as captain, will sail from Shanghai about the 15th instants.

The team is scheduled to leave Shanghai on the 16th inst. per N.D.L. s.s. Buelow
and to return from Hongkong on the 25th per M. S. s.s. Toskin.

"Opinions," says the China Press, "may vary about the relative merits of Drummond and Tommy Logan, the redoubtable youngster who lowered Shanghai's colours so effectively last year up here, but, as is natural, the hope is universal among local swimmers that Shanghai's new champion will once more bring back to Shanghai the Swimming Championship of the Far East that R. W. McCabe won at the first Interport gala in Hongkong in 1909.

There is the keenest anxiety among all local followers of swimming to see an exhaustive test (such as is furnished in such interport meetings where the championship events include races over 100, 220, 440 and 880 yards) made of the respective capabilities of the invincible Tommy Logan
and our local 100 and 200 yards champion."

Shortly after eight o'clock next day her
brother-in-law and a lady visited her on
the Hitcham Maru, and after partaking of
breakfast on board, Mrs Proudlock left
with them for an address in London.

A BATTLE IN MOROCCO.

MOORS ATTACK SPANIARDS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

London, Sept. 9.

It is officially reported in Madrid that the Moors attacked at dawn the advanced Spanish positions in the Melilla hinterland. They were repulsed with great loss. The Spanish losses amounted to one officer and seven men killed and one officer and 25 men wounded.
Reinforcements are being dispatched
from Spain.

LAURIER TO TAFT.

WILL DISCUSS BUSINESS, NOT POLITICS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

London, Sept. 9.

Reuter's correspondent at Ottawa says that Sir Wilfrid Laurier in a speech said he was confident that reciprocity would be in operation three months after the 21st September. Alluding to the objection that the United States would politically absorb Canada, he declared that if it were true that President Taft said that Canada was at the parting of the ways, he did not know what he was saying. "We are prepared," he said,
"to talk business with President Taft;
not politics."

AN APPEAL ALLOWED.

Judgment was given in the case of Li Po Hung against Li Ling Shi and others, at the Supreme Court this morning, by the Chief Justice Sir Francis Piggott and Mr Justice Gompertz.

Mr Justice Gompertz said he had carefully considered the evidence and he had come to the conclusion that the appeal must be allowed.

The Chief Justice said that the delay in giving judgment might be taken as an indication of the time and labour that had spent on the case. The learned Judge had gone through the evidence with enormous care and he must confess that there were points raised which he could not answer.

Whether the notes of the case were not fully taken or the summary was too short or
that he gave judgment on the impression of the witnesses was not certain, but the opinion of the learned Judge must prevail and he therefore ordered a new trial before the Full Court.

Hon. Mr Alabaster—What about the cost?

The Chief Justice—The cost in the case.

Mr Potter—To abide by the result of the appeal would cover the whole point.

The Chief Justice—The costs of the appeal to be costs on the cause and the former costs to be refunded.

MRS PROUDLOCK IN LONDON.

Mrs Ethel Proudlock, who was sentenced to death at Kuala Lumpur, Federated Malay States, on a charge of shooting a mine manager named Stewart, and was subsequently granted a full pardon signed by the Sultan of Selangor, arrived at the Royal Albert Dock last night by the Hitcham Maru, says the Globe of Aug. 22nd.

Mrs Proudlock was accompanied by her five-year-old daughter, Dorothy.

Looking somewhat pale, Mrs Proudlock said that under no circumstances whatever would she refer to the terrible experience she had undergone. She stated that she and her child intended to stay in London with a brother-in-law for a time. Her husband, who is headmaster of the Victoria Institution in Kuala Lumpur, expected to leave for home for a short holiday in the course of a few months and also hoped to be able to return to Kuala Lumpur with him at the termination of the vacation.

Shortly after eight o'clock next day her
brother-in-law and a lady visited her on
the Hitcham Maru, and after partaking of
breakfast on board, Mrs Proudlock left
with them for an address in London.

Figure 1 is a line graph with 'Number of hauls' on the x-axis (0 to 10) and 'Percentage of total catch' on the y-axis (0 to 100). There are three data series, all represented by solid lines with circular markers. The first series, labeled 'P. setiferus', starts at (0,0) and rises to (1,100). The second series, labeled 'P. setiferus + P. setiferus + P. setiferus', starts at (0,0) and rises to (2,100). The third series, labeled 'P. setiferus + P. setiferus + P. setiferus', starts at (0,0) and rises to (3,100). The lines for the second and third series are nearly identical, showing a very slight increase in the percentage of total catch for hauls 4 through 10, reaching approximately 100% by haul 10.

THE FRANCO-GERMAN CRISIS.

"INTOLERABLE SUSPENSE."

UNEASINESS IN GERMANY.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
London, Sept. 10.
It is officially stated in Berlin that there is agreement between France and Germany in principle, but nevertheless the differences in detail will require considerable discussion.

WAR RUMOURS.

War rumours continue to excite the poorer classes in Germany and have resulted in a run on different savings banks, notably at Koenigsberg, where one has failed.

GERMAN DEMANDS.

Reuter's Berlin correspondent states that the German counter-proposals regarding Morocco have been drawn up and will reach Paris on Sunday or Monday.

EFFECT ON THE BOURSE.

German business interests are becoming increasingly restive. The Bourse is much affected by the prolonged suspense, which the Berliner Tageblatt and Berliner Courier declare is intolerable; they appeal to both Governments to confide more freely in the public.

THE COUNTER-PROPOSALS.

A message from Paris says it is semi-officially stated that the German counter-proposals raise questions of principle which will require serious and minute examination.

THE "SCARE" IN GERMANY.

The war "scare" in Germany has caused heavy falls on the Berlin Bourse.

"KEEP YOUR HEAD"

The inspired Lokal Anzeiger rebukes German business circles and protests against the folly of "crediting wild reports."

It urges the Bourse to keep its head in its own interests as well as in the interests of the whole country. Both Governments, the journal adds, are determined to reach a permanent agreement.

WARNINGS TO THE IGNORANT.

Meanwhile the nervousness of the ignorant is increasing, and the local authorities are issuing warnings counselling calm, and declaring that the "scare" is the work of a frivolous Press.

AVIATION DANGERS.

FLEW AGAINST A POST.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
London, Sept. 11.
An aviator while flying in the dusk at Eastington collided with a post and was killed.

THE THEATRE COLLAPSE AT NICE.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
London, Sept. 10.
Eleven were killed and six seriously injured in the theatre collapse at Nice.

THE YEMEN REBELLION.

PERMANENT PEACE OVERTURES.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
London, Sept. 10.
Reuter's correspondent at Hodeidah reports that nearly all the sheikhs of the Yemen Highland have entered Sanaa and submitted. Negotiations for permanent peace are proceeding with Imam Sayid Yahya, who has already released 500 Turkish prisoners.

FOREIGN SPIES.

PRECAUTIONS AT BARROW.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
London, Sept. 10.
Bluejackets equipped with ball cartridges are guarding the dock gates at Barrow. This is considered necessary, because if the water were let out the warships would ground and be damaged. Special police are also on duty in the shipbuilding yards.
One telegram says that this is due to the presence of foreign spies.

LATEST AVIATION FEAT.

LONDON, Sept. 10.
(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
The aviator Hellen flew 178 miles in 14 hours 7 mins.

CHOLERA IN SPAIN.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 10.
Choleraic gastro-enteritis is raging in N.E. Spain, particularly in Barcelona. Many are fleeing to France.

BALL AT BALMORAL.

TENANTRY ENTERTAINED.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 10.
Their Majesties gave a ball to their tenants at Balmoral, at which a house party, including Lord Kitchener and Lord General Wingate, were present. After dinner the Queen participated in a reel.

BOXING.

AUSTRALIAN HEAVY-WEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 10.
A Sydney message states that Lester beat Lang on points in twenty rounds in the contest for the heavy-weight championship of Australia. There were 14,000 spectators.

THE DEAR FOOD CRISIS.

GOVERNMENT ACTION IN GERMANY AND FRANCE.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 9.
In consequence of the increased prices of foodstuffs and fodder, the Berlin Chamber of Commerce has petitioned the Government to check the export of grain and reduce the duties thereon. Representation is also being made to the Government to allow the importation of Argentine and American meat.
The Minister of Agriculture has ordered local authorities in several provinces of Prussia to sell fodder to needy farmers at reduced prices.

LATER.
The dear food riots in France show no signs of abatement. Window smashing is general and barricades have been thrown up at Roubaix, where the cavalry have made several charges. The municipalities are buying foodstuffs and selling at a loss.

MORE RIOTING.

LONDON, Sept. 11.
Order has been restored in Paris de Calais Department, but otherwise the situation has become worse.

Riots have been renewed at Roubaix, where the mob tore up the pavements and stoned the troops, several of whom were injured.

The cavalry was unable to charge owing to wire entanglements in the streets.

LABOUR SECRETARIES BEREAVEMENT.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 9.
The death has occurred of Mrs. Ramsay Macdonald, wife of the Secretary to the Labour Party.

BURGESS'S BET.

ACROSS THE CHANNEL AND BACK.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 9.
It is announced that Burgess is willing to stake £10 against £10,000 that he will swim from England to France and back in fifty hours.

AERIAL POST.

EXPERIMENT IN ENGLAND.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 9.
An agreement entered into by the Post Office for an experimental aerial postal service from London to Windsor was inaugurated Saturday for a limited period with a view to demonstrating the usefulness of aeroplanes in times of emergency. One hundred thousand letters have already been received for conveyance, including a message from Their Majesties.
The inauguration was marred by a strong wind. Of the four pilots only one went from London to Windsor and back.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES' GRIEVANCES.

P. M. G. TO RECEIVE DEPUTATION.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 11.
The Postmaster General has consented to receive a deputation of the National Joint Committee of Postal and Telegraph Employees to discuss their grievances.

THE LABOUR CONGRESS.

UNIFICATION IDEALS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 10.
The Trade Union Congress has closed. The Congress resolved to favour co-operating with the Labour Party with a view to the unification of the Trade Unions Societies connected with the Congress and the Party.
There was considerable opposition to the proposal, on the ground that the introduction of politics will impair the usefulness of the Congress.

THE EAST AFRICA SHOOTING CASE.

PEER'S SON TO BE DEPORTED.

Has the Jury System Failed?

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 10.

On the direction of the Imperial Government, the Governor of East Africa has ordered the deportation of the Hon. Mr. Galbraith Cole, son of Lord Enniskillen, who was acquitted on a charge of shooting a native in East Africa.

The Observer says it is to be expected that responsible elements in East Africa will approve of the Imperial Government's action; though it might have been better to withdraw trial by jury in East Africa in cases between blacks and whites. The journal quotes the acquittal of Bor Vel, who was charged with rape on a native girl in Natal, and the acquittal of Mr. Lewis in Rhodesia, reported in the newspapers on August 10th. A number of further instances were given to show the absolute breakdown of the jury system in Africa. Though there will be a good deal of personal sympathy for Mr. Cole, says the paper, on the grounds of Imperial policy his deportation must be recognised as a regrettable necessity.

[Note.—The Hon. Mr. Cole was acquitted by the Natal High Court, British East Africa, the charge being one of murdering a native suspected of sheep-stealing. The evidence showed that Mr. Cole had lost a number of sheep, and, following a clue, he and his boys came to a hut in the bush, where they found three natives picking wool from a sheepskin. They ran away when Mr. Cole fired, shot one dead. The second native escaped, and the third was captured by the boys.—Ed. C.M.]

SELLING STATE SECRETS.

RUSSIAN OFFICER IMPRISONED.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 9.
A message from St. Petersburg states that Captain Postnikov of the General Staff has been sentenced by court-martial to eight years' penal servitude for selling secret documents to three foreign Powers.

THE MISSING PICTURE.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 9.
The search for the missing picture "La Joconde" continues. The latest theory is that it has been stolen by an international gang which has removed other minor objects from the Louvre.

THE IRISH RIOTS.

POLICE FELTED.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, September 9.
The police reinforcements from Dublin met with a warm reception on their arrival at Wexford, where they had been sent to quell the strike disturbance. They were pelted with stones and bottles, and in charging the mob many were injured. Six strikers have been sent to the hospital.

AFRICAN GOVERNMENT SERVICE.

NEW APPOINTMENTS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 9.
Lieut. Colonel Galloway, who has been Governor of St. Helena since 1908, has been appointed Governor of Gambia. Mr. Henry Wallis, Assistant Deputy Governor of Nyasaland, has been appointed Chief Secretary of Uganda.

AMERICAN EXPLORER MURDERED.

WARSHIP DESPATCHED.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 11.
A Washington message says the cruiser Chester is being despatched to Tripoli to protect an American archaeological mission to Cyrene, a member of which was murdered during a march.

MUNICIPAL COURTESIES.

LONDON COUNCILLORS IN VIENNA.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 11.
The Lord Mayor of London and members of the Corporation have arrived in Vienna.

SENSATIONAL AMERICAN TRIAL.

BANKER SENTENCED TO DEATH.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 9.
A sensational trial at Chesterfield, Virginia, has concluded, sentence of death being passed on a banker named Beattie for the murder of his wife in a motor car on a lonely night drive. It was alleged that she was killed by an unknown highwayman, but the evidence disclosed Beattie's relations with a second woman.

LAWN TENNIS.

AMERICAN SUCCESSES IN DAVIS CUP.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 9.
A New York telegram states that in the preliminary games for the Davis Cup, Larned (America) beat Dixon (England) 6/3, 2/6, 6/3, 3/6, 7/5. Manghian (America) beat Lowe (England) 7/5, 6/1, 4/6, 4/6, 6/3.

KILMARNOCK-BYE-ELECTION.

SIR J.D. REES TO OPPOSE MR GLADSTONE.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Sept. 9.
Sir John D. Rees has been unanimously adopted as a Liberal Unionist candidate for Kilmarnock in opposition to Mr W. E. Gladstone.

[Note.—Sir J.D. Rees sat as Liberal M.P. for Montgomery District from 1906 until December last, when he retired. He was formerly in the Indian Civil Service, having been a member of the Governor-General's Council, but he retired therefrom in 1910. He has been a world-wide traveller. The Liberal majority at Kilmarnock in December was over 3,000.—Ed. C.M.]

A THREE-CORNERED FIGHT.

LATER.
Mr. McKerral has been adopted as Labour candidate for Kilmarnock.

THE SZECHUEN RIOTS.

CABINET MINISTER BLAMED.

(Wah Te Yai Fo's Service.)
PEKING, Sept. 10.
Over 200 officials in Peking, who are natives of Szechuen, have jointly reprimanded H.E. Sing Hain Wai, President of the Communication Board, in connection with the railway nationalisation scheme, which they say has caused all the trouble in Szechuen province. They have declared that if the memorial has no effect they will resign their posts.

H.E. TUAN FANG.

(Wah Te Yai Fo's Service.)

PEKING, Sept. 10.
H.E. Tuan Fang, the Superintendent of the Southern Railways, has reported to the Imperial Government that he started for Szechuen on the 10th inst.

THE ABSCONDING TAOTAI.

TO BE HANDED OVER TO CHINA.

(Wah Te Yai Fo's Service.)
PEKING, Sept. 10.
A telegram from the Wai-wu-pu states that H.E. Leung Ching, Chinese Minister in Berlin, has wired to the effect that the German Foreign Office has agreed to give up to the Governor of Tsingtau to deliver up to China Tai Nat Whang, the dismissed Shanghai Taotai, who recently escaped from custody and fled thither. H.E. Huan is therefore instructed to send an officer to take Tai back and wait for further instructions.

WEATHER REPORT.

The following notice is issued from the Hongkong Observatory.

On the 11th at 11 50 a.m.—The shallow depression lying over the N.E. part of the Sea of Japan yesterday has moved away Northwards, and pressure has increased over J. China and S. Japan.

The barometer has fallen moderately in Shanghai, a depression having appeared over the Yangtze valley.

Pressure is high over the Pacific in the neighbourhood of the Bonins, and over Manchuria. It has increased and is in slight excess of the normal at the stations bordering the China Sea.

Light or moderate E. and N.E. winds may be expected over the N. part of the China Sea.

Hongkong rainfall for the 24 hours ending at 10 a.m. today, 0.07 inches.

Forecast for the 24 hours ending at noon to-morrow.

1.—Hongkong and Neighbourhood: E. winds, light; fine.

2.—Formosa Channel: Variable winds, light.

3.—South coast of China between Hongkong and Lamook: Same as No. 1.
